Let Look At Dinosaurs

This is a pop-up book about dinosaurs! The children liked the pages for the most part, especially the T-Rex page. Some of the pictures didn't "pop" as much as the children seemed to have wanted, but the images were large and colorful and interesting to look at.

Let's look at dinosaurs (Book, 2011) [WorldCat.org]

A lot of this business about warm-blooded dinosaurs was just blown way out of proportion, says Alan Feduccia, an evolutionary biologist at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. It was just pure hype. So I applaud these new studies. Dinosaurs are beginning again to look like reptiles--although not your everyday ones.
